Neges gan Richard ❖ Richard's Message

Ar Ddydd Gwener y Grogolith, yn Eglwys Nefyn, darllenodd Naomi a fi trwy'r Efengyl yn ôl Sant Luc — hyd at le mae Iesu yn cael ei gladdu ym mhennod 23. Wnaethom yr un peth y flwyddyn ddiwethaf gyda Marc a'r flwyddyn cyn gyda Mathew. Ymunodd faint ohonoch. Mae'n rhyfedd iawn i roi'r gorau i ddarllen ar y pwynt hwnnw. Tôn eich llais yn gostwng i adlewyrchu digwyddiadau dwfn. Mae eich cyflymder yn arafu fel y mae pob ymadrodd yn llawn tristwch. Mae'n rhyfedd, oherwydd yr ydym yn gwybod beth sy'n digwydd nesaf. Gwyddom lawenydd dydd y Pasg! Mae'n teimlo anghywir i gollu uchafbwynt ein ffydd! Ond yr oedd y realiti i ffrindiau Iesu wrth wyllo'r croeshoelio — ac mae'n realiti i lawer o'n ffrindiau, aelodau'n teulu a chymdogion. Y syndod yr atgyfodiad yn newyddion syfrdanol — Newyddion Da! Newyddion syndod i ddathlu!

On Good Friday, in Nefyn Church, Naomi and I read through the Gospel According to Luke — right up to the point where Jesus was buried in chapter 23. We did the same with Matthew two years ago and Mark last year. Some of you have joined us for this.

It's very strange to stop reading at that point. Your tone of voice drops to reflect the deeply sombre events being recounted. Your pace slows as each phrase is filled with sadness.

It's strange, because we know what happens next. We know the joy of Easter Day! It feels wrong, somehow, to stop short of the pinnacle of our faith!

But it was the reality for Jesus' friends as they watched the crucifixion — and it's the reality for many of our friends, family members and neighbours.

The surprise of the resurrection is staggering news — Good News! Surprising news worth celebrating!

Gyda phob bendith,

Richard

This meeting—effectively an AGM for all of Bro Madryn—is the equivalent of our old Easter Vestry Meetings. It's where we all 9 churches come together to look back at the year past, look forward to the year ahead, do some important housekeeping (like checking our accounts) and make some important decisions (like electing officers). Please, please do come! It's for EVERYONE!!!

Eglwys y Bont | Abersoch | The Bridge Church

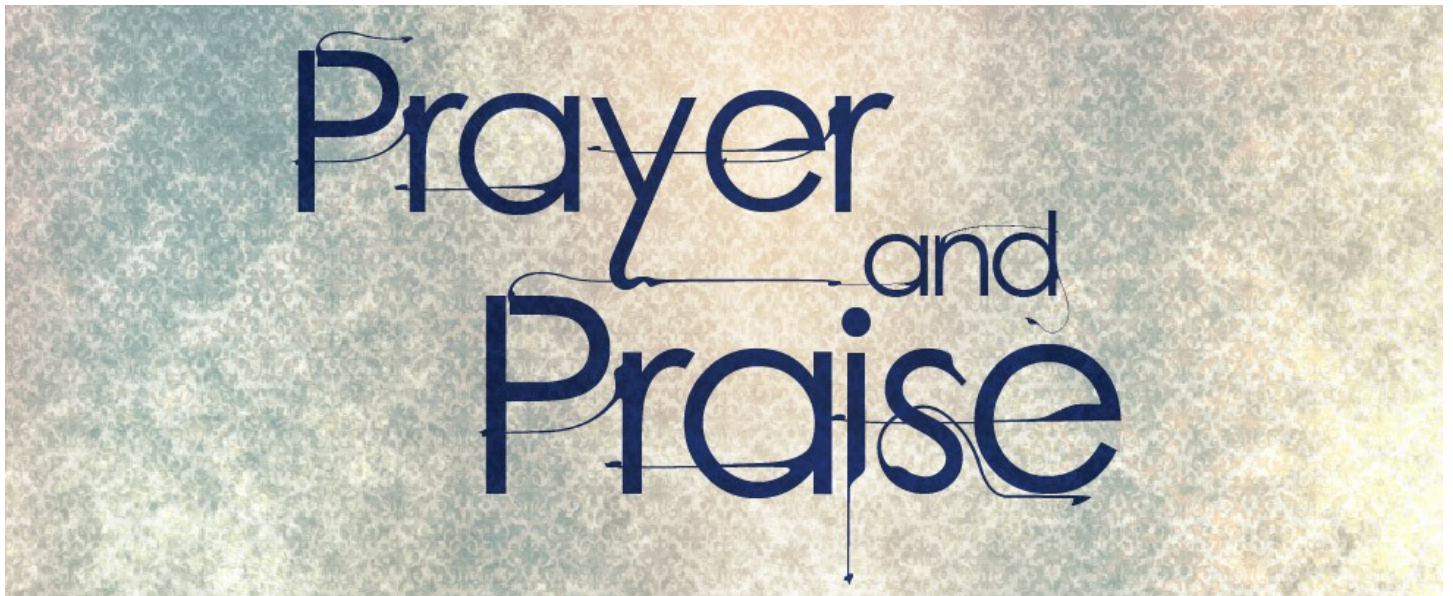

The Sunday after Easter is traditionally known as 'Low Sunday' in the Church calendar – but 'Low Sunday' 2016 is the starting-point for an exciting development in the life of our churches in Bro Enlli and Bro Madryn!

On Sunday, 3rd April at 4:30pm, the first gathering of 'Eglwys y Bont / the Bridge Church' takes place in Abersoch. Meeting in Olgra, the Abersoch beach mission headquarters, the gathering will offer informal worship and Bible reflection, co-ordinated by the Rev'd Naomi Starkey, curate in Bro Enlli, and Helen Franklin of Bro Madryn, who works for Scripture Union.

Beginning each time with refreshments (and aiming to finish by 6pm), the worship will use a simple bilingual liturgy, as well as times of music, prayer and discussion, with an emphasis on accessibility to all ages and backgrounds, especially those who may never have tried church before.

Croeso cynnes iawn i bawb. A very warm welcome to everyone.

For more details, please contact Naomi (01758 760603) or Helen (01758 701663).

This isn't just for those who are really keen!

This is for everyone and everyone is asked to make this meeting a priority.

BRO

Our excellent magazine was brought to life with Roger Stephens Jones as the editor.

That is just one of the many ways in which we miss him deeply.

If you, or anyone you can think of, might be able to help us continue this excellent work (with the technical help of Haydn Hughes), please get in touch with Richard.

(01758 720707 | 07855 817740 | revdrich@gmail.com)

Every year, a Scripture Union Beach Mission (formerly CSSM) is held in Nefyn, run by a huge team of volunteers from across the UK.

This year, we are hoping to help by offering some of them accommodation for their time here.

If you think that you might be able to offer a bed (no meals required) for either one or two weeks at the beginning of August, contact Richard (720707).
