Neges gan Richard ❖ Richard's Message

Ar ein gwyliau y mis diwethaf aethom ag Ethan a Sophia i Gaerdydd i weld Dippy Diplodocws; cast y sgerbwd sydd wedi bod yn uchafbwynt i'r Amgueddfa Hanes Naturiol ers blynyddoedd ac sydd bellach 'ar daith' o amgylch y DU.

Roedd llawer o blant yno, yn syllu arno mewn rhyfeddod. Ond nid yw'n symud; nid yw'n gwneud sain; nid sgrin gyffwrdd mohono!

Roedd rhywbeth o'i faint trawiadol, ei unigrywiaeth a'r realiti y mae'n ei gynrychioli wedi swyno pawb a oedd yno i'w weld. Deffrowyd ein dychymyg a gwelsom y tu hwnt i'r hyn oedd o'n blaen, yn darlunio inni ysblander mawreddog diplodocws go iawn.

Rwy'n credu ein bod yn tanamcangyfrif ein gallu i edrych y tu hwnt i ymddangosiadau i weld beth mae rhywbeth yn ei gynrychioli; nid lleiaf gydag Eglwys Dduw. Yn sicr, gallwn edrych fel ychydig o ddeinosor! Efallai y byddwn yn teimlo fel esgyrn heb unrhyw gnawd arnynt. Weithiau rydyn ni'n teimlo'r angen i fod yn ysgafn; i ddefnyddio gimics a thriciau i wneud ein hunain yn fwy deniadol.

Ond Corff Crist ydym ni; Ei lysgenhadon ar y ddaear. Os gallwn weld rhyfeddod hynny inni ein hunain a sefyll gyda'r holl hyder y mae'n ei gynnig, yna mae'n ddigon posibl y bydd y dychymyg yn ennyn diddordeb y rhai sy'n ein gweld.

Gyda phob bendith,

On our family holiday last month we took Ethan and Sophia to Cardiff to see Dippy the Diplodocus; the cast of the skeleton which has been a highlight of the Natural History Museum for years and is now 'on tour' around the UK.

Dozens of children were there, gazing at it in wonder and delight. And yet, it doesn't move; it doesn't make a sound; it's not a touchscreen!

Something of its impressive size, its uniqueness and the reality it represents captivated everyone who was there to see it. Our imagination was awakened and we saw beyond what was in front of us, picturing for ourselves the majestic splendour of a real diplodocus.

I think we underestimate our human ability to look beyond mere appearances to see what something represents; not least with God's Church. For sure, we can look like a bit of a dinosaur! We often feel like just bare bones with no flesh on them. Sometimes we feel the need to be showy and flashy; to apply some gimmicks and modern tricks to make ourselves more attractive.

But we are the Body of Christ; His ambassadors here on earth. If we can grasp for ourselves the wonder of that and stand with all the confidence that it offers, then those who see us may well have their imagination engaged.

Richard
